EDITOR - DOLLY FALLS

BUSINESS MANAGER-ROGER GRANT

Foreword

In order to preserve some of the most cherished memories of our years spent at Montvale High School, we offer this book for your reflection. It is our earnest hope that in the days to come, as you glance over these pages you may be reminded of our many happy experiences at M. H. S. With this purpose in mind, we, the class of '50, present this volume of The Echo.

Dedication

We, the Echo Staff, deem it a high privilege to honor one whose loyalty, charm, wit and sincere interest in our welfare has given us confidence in ourselves and faith in others.

In recognition of her service to the student body, we dedicate with love and admiration the Echo of 1950 to Miss Wilma Rayburn.

We Honor

In addition to fulfilling her many duties, Miss Varner always finds time to be a personal friend and counselor to each of us. We are grateful for the privilege of having known her and are proud to have her as sponsor of the ECHO STAFF. With much pride we, the Echo Staff, honor MISS CATHERINE VARNER.

VIRGINIA BELLE AYERS

"Jennie Bell"

"I told you, didn't I?" Jennie has a strong voice that you never fail to hear. She always has something funny to say. Here's lots of luck and bundles of happiness, Jennie.

MADELINE IRENE BOWER

"Madeline"

"Betty, have you done your Latin?" Madeline is a gay and carefree girl. She also has a sweet personality and likes to take part in all activities and is a success. Here's luck to you.

GEORGE FRANKLIN BUSSEY

"Junior"

"Ah-heck" Junior always has a broad grin for everyone and constantly on either the giving or receiving end of a practical joke. His two loves are a blue Dodge and the "Goose Creek airport"

BEULAH MAE CARTER

"Beulah"

"Well I'll declare" Who is the girl that makes "98" on all her tests? Well there's no question about this because we all know it's Beulah. She always has her lessons up to date and is willing to help the other "fellow". Lot's of luck to you.

SARAH VIRGINIA CARTER

"Blondie"

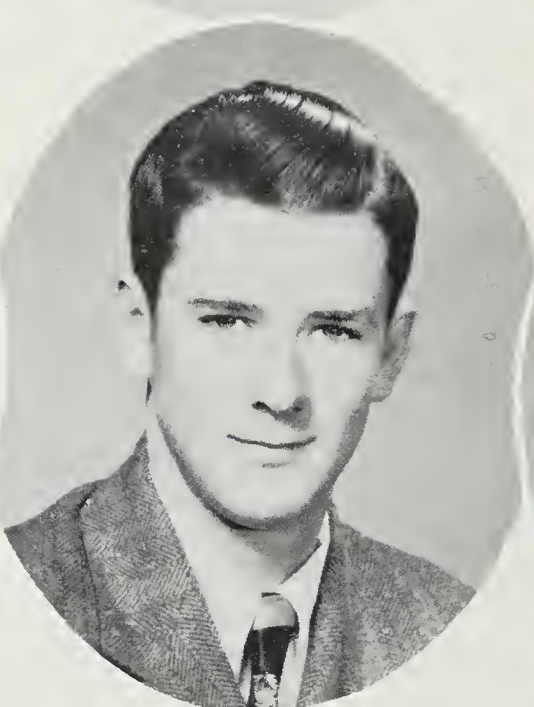

"Golly" Now here's a pretty lass with blonde hair and a pleasing smile. She doesn't have a lot to say but expresses her thoughts in what she does say. We know the road to success will not be difficult for you, Sarah.

WILLIE W. CARTER

"Sis"

"How ya' feelin'?" We will always remember Willie by her pretty clothes and determining attitude. Just ask Sonny about her future, for we're sure he has it planned.

Best of luck, Dolly Falls

Before yourself, Dolly Wesley

DOLLY MAE FALLS "Shorty"
"Oh shut up" Small, sweet, very studious with plenty of brains and ability, that's our Dolly. Never shall we forget her as "Conscience" In our Showboat Minstrel. Happy going for you, Dolly.

MARY SUE FORGIE "Susie"
"Let me tell you something funny." We always know when Mary Sue is around by her giggles. She always seems to find the good side of everything. We're sure she'll be a success no matter what her career may be.

ESTER ANN GILES "Ester"
"I'll get even with you" Ester always has something to say to make you laugh and to make the gang more lively. She has such a winning charm that we're sure she'll be a success

NOLIE VIRGINIA GILES
"Nol-ie"

"Listen to me! Nolie's pretty blue eyes are always laughing and she always has something cheerful to say. Everyone seems to like her, and her good nature returns their affections. Here's luck Nolie.

RICHARD WOODROW GILES
"Woody"

I don't care myself! Woodrow is a friendly, good hearted boy who takes life as it comes. He seems to make a hit with the girls and always appears happy.
Hope this happiness continues through the years to come.

JAMES WESLEY GRAHAM
"Cassie"

"Ah-h" Leadership and personality have been combined in the right amounts in our class president. We admire his scholastic ability and his sterling character.

*I wish you much success in your years in high school at
M.H.S.
Love
Elizabeth*

Betty I hope you will be best

THELMA CLARK "Thelma"
"one time I---". Thelma greet us with a shy grin but we don't let that fool us because we know she is friendly and helpful at all times. She is sweet and congenial and we hope that the future holds much in store for her.

MARY ELIZABETH CREASY
"Liz"
"Oh don't get me tickled."
Anybody seen "Liz" We simply must have her because the gang is so incomplete without her. She's the "Star" on the girl's basketball squad and we're sure her grand personality and good cheer will carry her successfully through life.

BETTY ZANE DOOLEY "Nat"
"So Munchable" Who is this attractive girl who wears a diamond on the third finger of her left hand? Why it's Betty and it appears that she has the future all sewed up. Betty has proven to be a cooperative student both in studies and on the basketball court.

ONIE C. DOOLEY "Onie" Onie is a willing friend who is always cheerful and helpful.
We feel sure she will make a success of her life.

RUBY ALLEN DOOLEY "Mug"
"Betty, I asked first." Ever noticed that blonde headed girl who can be found everywhere but in her homeroom? That's our Ruby. She is liked because of her friendliness and she also made a big hit on the Girl's basketball Squad. Here's luck to you.

MAMIE LOUISE DRAPER
"Mamie"
"I know it" Mamie always greet us with a broad grin.
She is friendly and helpful at all times and we know that the future holds much in store for her. Best of everything to you Mamie.

BEST OF LUCK.
C. Roger Grant

CARL ROGER GRANT "Roger"
"Oh man, Yeah!" Handsome, popular and always the lady's man. Roger is the "Star" captain on the basketball court. His ability as a leader, his sincereness, his free-hearted manner, and frankness have won him much admiration and a host of friends.

NANCY ANN GRAY "Nancy"
"I had more fun last night!" Nancy, tell us something, How do you manage to attract so many people's attention? You do a good job with both boys and girls. We aren't worried about your future!

GRACE ELLEN GROSS
"Boo'chie"
"Well I'll be" Ellen is a quiet girl but she has a pleasing personality. She has a friendly way to keep the conversation going. You also make a hit with Edgar-don't you, Ellen? Good luck!

ALBERT WILSON HARTBERGER "AL"
"Fiddle" Now here's a boy who is really going places because of his outstanding characteristics. He came to us in our Junior year and started right out as one of us. We all think he's a grand fellow and are sure he'll never find life too difficult.

HAZEL JUNIOR HATTER
"Hazel"
"Oh heck!" Smiling good nature, and always willing to help others-that's Hazel. She has a sweet personality that has won her many friends in her four years of high school. What ever your plans for the future may be, the best of everything.

MARY E. MILLER HAUPT
"Mary Bug"
"For heaven Sakes!" Mary is a happy-go-lucky girl with a merry twinkle in her eyes. She's really going places with her outstanding musical ability. She was a June bride of '49 and we are awfully glad she stayed in our class. Good luck, Mary.

*Lot of luck to a very cute girl
Gladys*

EDITH LORENE HAWLEY
"Renie"
"I think so too." Lorene is one of those girls who never seems to run out of energy. Although she isn't a bookworm, She seems to get a-lon O.K. I'm sure we'll all miss her. Here's happiness Lorene.

GLADYS MAE McGUIRE
"Gladys"
"She told me." Here's a girl that can always tell you the latest news. She is a lively lass who is liked by everyone With such qualities as you possess, we know you will have little trouble in the world of tomorrow.

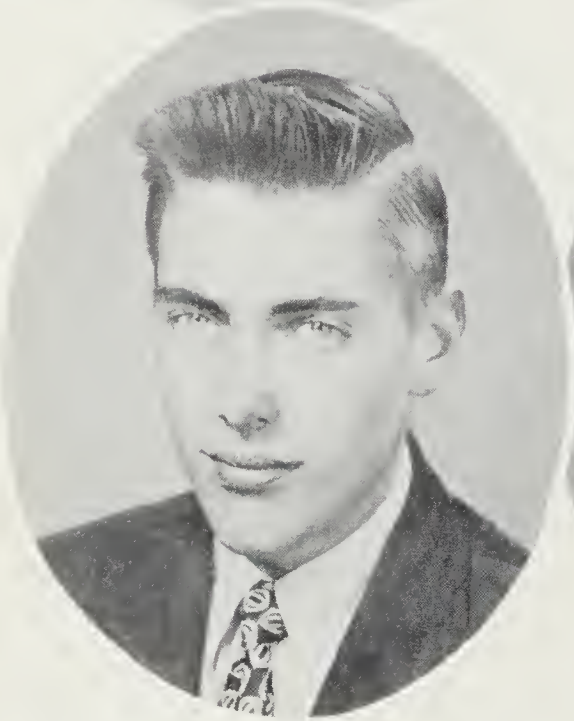

MARY FRANCES MILLER
"Mary C"
"Doodle" Anybody seen Mary? The gang is incomplete without her; for she is the life of the party. We are surely going to miss her cheery personality after graduation.

MARY JANE MORGAN
"Jane"
"Heck" Sweet and understanding with a great deal of poise. Jane is noted for her singing ability and genuine sincerity Whatever she chooses for the future will be accomplished.

BETTY JANE NESTER
"Yummy"
"Oh heck" Who was the girl who sung "St. Louis Blues" at our "Annual Showboat Minstrel? Well now-that was Betty Jane. We feel that she will go far in any career she chooses.

ALFRED THOMAS OVER-STREET "Percules"
"Now see here girls" It's never hard to find Percules-just look for a book sitting up some where and he will be right behind it. We are sure Alfred finds time from his studies. Just ask the girls! We wish you a wonderful future, Alfred.

DORIS IRENE OVERSTREET
"Ducky"

"Great Scotts" Doris is one of our musical minded seniors-her inclination being the piano. She's full of pep and has made a wonderful cheerleader. We all wish you the best of luck in the years to follow.

MILDRED ALLEN OVERSTREET
"Millie"

"I wish I were home! This gallant heroine of our class has a sense of humor all her own. She got married in December, 1948 and has been in attendance just the same. We wish a life of happiness to you, Mildred.

KATHLEEN RICHARDSON
"Kathy"

"I didn't know that". Kathleen is a serious minded girl who can be gay when the occasion demands. Kathleen came to us in our junior year. She's a success in all fields and we are sure she'll keep the good work up.

JOE F. ROUDABUSH "Joe"
"Oh shucks" There's never a dull moment when Joe's around. With his wise cracks and humorous complaints, this easy going fellow spends most of his time avoiding work. Good luck, Joe, we're pulling for you.

NANCY JANE SANDERSON
"Nancy"

"I don't believe it" Neat, energetic, cheerful, and polite, Nancy is noted for her many giggles. We wish you luck, in the future, Nancy.

JUANITA MAE SCOTT
"Nita"

"Shucks! Now here is a girl who is always neat and so much fun to be with. She has taken part in all activities in high school and we are sure she'll be floorgirl in Newsberry's 5 & 10¢ Store.

Best of luck, Patty love, Lois

*Have fun in school! It doesn't last long!!
Lots of luck,
Millie*

*Best of luck,
Kathy*

*The Best of Luck
to you. Show
your in school.
Clara*

*If you have as good a time when you're seniors as we did, you're lucky. Best wishes,
Marion*

CLARA LEE SEABOLT
"Clara"
"Good Heavens! Clara is one of our serious minded seniors. Her winning smile and carefree manners win their way into every heart. We have no doubts about you, Clara."

MARION ELIZABETH SMITH
"Smitty"
"Has anyone seen my bill-fold?" Marion is little but loud. Although she is very short in height, she is never short in wind. Her interests seem equally divided between boys and studies and she has done well in both fields.

BOBBY EVERETTE STALLARD "Willie"
"Let me tell you." Good athlete, excellent artist and always the life of the party. These are only a few traits that describe Bobby. With his various imitations, there is never a dull moment around him. Good luck, Willie.

DOROTHY LEIGH STIFF
"Dottie"
"Oh No!" Dottie is our beautiful blonde. Along with beauty she also has ability. We are sure she will succeed in both.

ROBERT DOUGLAS TROUT
"Bob"
"Thats it" Tall, tan, and terrific that's Bob. This guy made a wonderful hit on our "Showboat Minstrel" by singing "Mammy" He has three pastimes: wine, women and song-his favorite being the last-we believe!! Good luck Bob, We're pulling for you.

DONALD HUGH WALDEN
"Huh?"
Donald is a quiet, good-hearted boy, who seems to care little about the girls, but appears to be happy. Hope this happiness continues through years to come. Lots of luck, Don.

Class History 1950

Memories, memories, days of long ago---

"Do you remember the time when we sat around the camp fire at Bedford Lake? I believe we were Sophomores then."

"I certainly do. I can still see that 'fifty-seven varieties' of happy little tots climbing up the front steps only to have their spirits dampened by Mr. Kee's, 'What have I done to deserve this?'"

"Who but our indescribably helpful, thoughtful, and lovable sponsor, Mrs. Margaret Garrett, could have made us feel more at home, arranged our schedules, and restored our smiles so quickly."

"Doris Smith, Jimmy Sublett, Dolly Falls, and Bobby Stallard surely started out early as politicians. They were our officers for that year."

"How well I remember our sitting on the front rows Rat Day! We were called on the stage one by one and were so nervous that the steps shook as we ascended them."

"Never shall I forget our first 'all important' high school party."

"The thoughts of our second year are very clear in my mind. That year Joe Roudabush, Alfred Overstreet, Lois Orange and Doris Overstreet were at the helm. I believe we had one of those capable and energetic young teachers as our sponsor. As I recall, her name was Miss Catherine Varner."

"Seems as though with our forty-nine experienced Sophomores, we did quite a few things such as dressing up as waiters and serving those Juniors and Seniors at their reception. And then there was that wonderful Easter party. I still have those snapshots of us grouped around the bunny rabbit."

"As these days slipped quickly by, we looked forward to our Junior days. I recall that great election we had in forty-eight. I believe I was in on that. Our intelligent officers who emerged from the campaign were Wesley Graham, Mary F. Miller, Dolly Falls, and Roger Grant, along with our never forgotten sponsor, Miss Virginia Anderson."

"The fun and appreciation expressed by the Seniors repaid us for all those studyless, sleepless nights we spent preparing a gay time for them."

"It was good to have a picnic on the Peaks when we didn't have to bother about all those Seniors and it was really fun. Remember how nice the girls looked when they ushered for the senior activities?"

"Ah, nineteen hundred and forty-nine found forty-two dignified Seniors approaching their last year at M. H. S. Our thoughtful and helpful sponsor, Miss Wilma Rayburn, settled us down to work for awhile until that minstrel came along called 'Dusky Clouds over M. H. S.'"

"That year the Senior Class was well led by our officers - Wesley Graham, Mary F. Miller, Dolly Falls, and Roger Grant."

"I can still see us waiting for the bus that cold Friday morning to journey us to Williamsburg. My, the fun we did have! Those Juniors surely did give us a swell banquet, didn't they?"

"I remember how all the people at Community League talked about our beautiful window and the Christmas Pageant we gave to them at Christmas."

"With tears in my eyes, I remember too well our last moments at M. H. S. such as Senior Play, Class Night, Baccalaureate, Commencement and then Good-Bye."

Senior Representatives.....	Dottie Stiff
.....	Bobby Stallard

Combine a clear, cold, starry night, fluffy with snow, a beautifully decorated gym, and a Christmas spirit, and you'll have the perfect ingredients for the perfect "Snow Festival" which took place Saturday, December, 10th., at Montvale High. The rafters fairly shook with the laughter and good spirits of the fun seeking crowd which came to participate in the crowning of Montvale's King and Queen. People crowded closely around the many booths which had been constructed earlier in the day by hard working pupils and teachers.

Dart throwing, penny pitching, talent shows, bingo, fishing, movies, and other entertainments kept the crowd amused. Never had the stage looked so beautiful!

Finally the time had come for the big event of the evening, the crowning of the king and queen. Booths were closed and the people gathered around the stage to bid for the king and queen of their choice. Since all the contestants looked wonderful it was difficult to make a choice. The bidding flew by fast and furiously and tension was high. Then the yell "Times up" was heard and the master of ceremonies announced the winner amid the cheers of triumph. The Senior Class had carried away the honors for Bobby Stallard and Dottie Stiff were crowned "King and Queen of Snow".

1. Junior-Senior Reception.
2. May I have this dance?
3. Bring on the food.
4. Queen and her Attendants.
5. King and Queen of Snow
6. What have we here?
7. What time is it?
8. Dusky clouds over M. H. S.
9. Bingo.

10. Play it pretty, boys.
11. Did you win?
12. Such pretty smiles.
13. A darkie and cloister
14. Ye ale end men.
15. Betty, blow your horn.
16. Beauty contestants.

Class Prophecy

The sound of screeching brakes; an ear splitting crash of steel against steel; then silence. I awoke to find myself lying on an incredibly soft bed-or so it seemed. Upon closer examination I discovered-to my horror-that I was gliding through space on a large, white cloud. Before I had time to consider my predicament, my cloud rolled to a stop, turned over, and unceremoniously dumped me in front of a large, golden gate, set in a high silver wall. It swung slowly open on its jeweled hinges and an old man (beneath his long white beard he bore a striking resemblance to my old high school principal, Mr. McKee) stepped out.

"Well, we have been expecting you," he said. "Your case is still being considered. We will let you know when a decision has been reached. You may have the use of the cloud, if you wish." He paused. "Frankly, young chap, in view of your record, I would not count on staying in Heaven if I were you."

The gate clanked shut, and I was left alone. Glancing quickly about me, I noticed a large gold-inlaid book lying half buried in the stardust that covered everything. I picked it up and read the title. St. Peter had forgotten his roll book. Hopping on my cloud, I headed for a quiet spot on the moon. I settled myself comfortably in a small crater; ate a Milky Way, which I picked on the way; and turned my attention to the book. Eagerly I leafed through the pages until, at last, I found it----"Montvale High School, Class of 1950".

This is what I read:

St. Peter's Roll Montvale High School Class of 1950

PERSON	AMBITION	DESTINATION IN 1960
Kathleen Richardson	Opera singer	A sore throat
Junior Bussey	Architect	Confined to his home because he forgot to include a door for the house he designed for himself.
Albert Hartberger	Scientist	Lost while enroute to the moon
Dolly Falls	Nurse	Ambition fulfilled--nurse for her own three children
Betty Dooley	To get married	An old maid
Gladys McGuire	To get a boy friend	Founder of a Lonely Hearts club
Wesley Graham	Master mechanic	Residing in a cake of ice because of complications that occurred while he was repairing a refrigeration unit
Mary Sue Forgie	Telephone operator	Has to wear a hearing aid from listening to other peoples' conversations
Willie Carter	Home maker	Home wrecker--She blew up the house while trying to cook with gas
Madeline Bower	Designer for "Saks"	Model for Al Cap in Dogpatch
Ruby Dooley	Home Ec. teacher	Teaches home economics to her own daughters
Mildred Overstreet and Mary E. Haupt	To be a good wife	Taking a plane to Reno

PERSON	AMBITION	DESTINATION IN 1960
Hazel Hatter	To lose weight	Signs a contract to play Aunt Jemima on radio
Mary Jane Morgan	Actress	Last heard she had changed name to "Ham"
Dottie Stiff	Airline hostess	Was chosen as "Miss Dangerous Air Current" of 1960
Clara Lee Seabolt	To swim the English Channel	Ambition, unfulfilled, even though she does have water enough for that--washing clothes for husband and six children.
Virginia Ayres	To own Waldorf Astoria	Raises chickens
Juanita Scott	Sponsor of Virginia 4-H Clubs	Her latest book How Not to Lose Weight in Ten Easy Lessons caused her to retire--to the poor house
Lorene Hawley	Math teacher	Resting in hospital--complaint: figures in front of her eyes
Onie Dooley	To own Leggetts Department store	Owns a husband instead
Nancy Sanderson	A wave in the navy	Married to a sailor
Ellen Gross	Broker in First Nat'l. Bank	Serving five years for embezzlement
Betty Jane Nester	Missionary Worker	Last heard, she was wearing grass skirt and doing native war dance in Africa
Woodrow Giles	Farmer	Cross bred tomatoes and red peppers to produce "hot tamales"
Joe Roudabush	To build a bridge across Atlantic Ocean	Project fell through in mid-ocean--Mr. Roudabush with it
Thelma Clark	Housewife	Scrub woman at Montvale High School
Alfred Overstreet	Owner of Greyhound Lines	In hospital from bus accident. This is only his twenty-first in ten years.
Mary F. Miller	Gossip Editor on "Richmond Times Dispatch"	Dispatched to court for gossiping about several teachers she knew while in school
Marion Smith	Wisest woman in the world	Chosen as "Miss Scatter-Brain" of 1960
Nancy Grey	To give lectures on budgeting	Treated for sore throat from too much talking
Donald Walden	Professor of Chemistry	Has established the fact that the earth turns backwards
Doris Overstreet	Music composer	Making her home at Va. Mental Institute. Her music drove her to insanity.
Roger Grant	Captain of Duke Univ. basketball team	Coach "Grants, Inc." players are the six little Grants.
Bob Trout	A lawyer	Sentenced to six months jail sentence for contempt of court

PERSON	AMBITION	DESTINATION IN 1960
Nolie Giles	Facial specialist	Has opened a beauty salon. Three treatments will either make you look like Betty Grable or Boris Karloff
Beulah Carter	Latin teacher	Has revived the Latin language. It is now spoken in 97 different countries.
Elizabeth Creasy	Athletic Director	Woman wrestler
Sarah Carter	Model	Designer in Dogpatch
Ester Giles	Sales Girl	Finally sold her boy friend on the idea of marriage

As I finished reading the last line and put the book on my cloud, I felt a tap on my shoulder. I looked up into the face of a very hot and bothered angel. "Where in Heaven have you been," he roared. "I've looked all over for you. They want you back at headquarters right away and you had better. St.Pete is in a nasty mood, because someone has swiped his note book." Then he flapped off to the Big Dipper.

I quickly tore the page out and headed for headquarters.

St.Pete was waiting for me. He did not say a word when he spotted the book, but I knew I was finished. He gave me a long lecture, told me, "Go South, young man," and gave me a push with his foot. Down, down, down I went. I was very hot, but they would not even let me in there since they were too full. I would have to wait my turn. While I was waiting, I decided to return to Montvale for a while, so here I am.

Editor's note: This document was found in the office typewriter after the night watchman stated that he saw it typing automatically. The page from St.Peter's roll book was found beside the typewriter. It has been faithfully reproduced.

In checking the class list it has been discovered that the only person not accounted for is Bobby Stallard. He died in an auto accident when he slipped on a banana peeling. I advise the readers to heed the warning profited by this sad case.

Incidentally, there is an excellent job as night watchman in Montvale High School. If any of our readers are interested contact Mr. McKee.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty, knowing that the time for departure from Montvale High School is drawing nigh, and now in our right mind (we have none left), do hereby bestow our numerous valuable qualities as well as our idiosyncrasies, upon our worthy and devoted lower classmen in this our Last Will and Testament.

To Mr. McKee we leave our many thanks for his wholehearted interest in us during these four years.

To Miss Rayburn we leave our appreciation for her guidance and understanding in our senior year. May she have another class next year as fine as we were. Never shall we forget her saying, "Remember there are forty-two of you" and "I love you truly but scram!"

To the rest of the faculty we leave the motto, "While I live, I hope". May this remind you that next year you may have quieter senior classes.

To the Eighth Grade we leave four more years of high school. Hope you'll enjoy it.

To the Freshman Class we leave our dignity. Maybe it didn't show at all times, but it was there; and you'll have it too, when you learn that you have been remembered in this, our Last Will.

To the Sophomore Class we give one million, five hundred-sixty dollars and fifty cents. Ha! Ha! We fooled you--there is no Sophomore Class!

To the Junior Class we leave our radio. Remember, don't play it during any entertainments!

Now there are a few personal items we would like to keep in the big family.

Elizabeth Creasy and Roger Grant leave their athletic ability to next year's basketball teams. See you at the tournament, teams!

Donald Walden leaves his quiet ways to James Lodge and Tommy Holdren. Now there will be a little peace and quiet on the bus----maybe.

Dottie Stiff leaves her feminine ways to Peggy. (Need we say any more?)

Albert Hartberger leaves his chemistry ability to Miss Anderson. He would also like for Tommy Berry to have his bobby pin at basketball games.

Thelma Clark leaves her ability to tell such long and exciting stories in Home Economics Class to Barbara Foster. Ah, is there no intermission!

Virginia Belle Ayres wants her ability to ask questions in Miss Varner's English Class to be left to Joan Gray. "Say, who's the teacher in this class?"

Kathleen Richardson, Mary Jane Morgan, and Betty Jane Nester leave their wonderful voices to the Glee Club.

Marion Smith leaves her good grades in Home Economics to Rosalie Dooley. You'll hit the top, Rosalie.

Mildred Overstreet and Mary Elizabeth Haupt leave to make homes for their "hubbies".

Alfred Overstreet leaves his guitar playing and his ownership of the "Montvale Follies" to Lloyd Orange.

Madeline Bower leaves her spoon in the lunchroom to Patty Boggess. How about some hash, Patty?

Beulah Carter bequeaths her good grades in all her subjects to James McCabe. Bet they'll come in handy, won't they, James?

Doris Overstreet leaves her ability to play the piano to Garland Holland. Remember, Garland, stop playing when the bell rings!

Junior Bussey leaves with a car load of girls in his '41 Dodge with the fluid drive. Another trip to the Goose Creek Airport?

Ruby Dooley and Clara Lee Seabolt want Beatrice Robinson to have their big brown eyes. Now let's not roll them too much, Beatrice, especially at a certain junior boy.

To next year's Senior Class, Mary Sue Forgie and Nancy Gray leave their willingness to cooperate in any matter. We're sure this will help out a great deal.

Onie Dooley wants Thelma Orange to have her long black hair. Say, this will take a little dyeing.

Lorene Hawley leaves a few of her inches to Willie Rose. How high is the sky, Willie?

Wesley Graham leaves his car for his mother to drive awhile. After all, Wesley, it does belong to her.

Hazel Hatter and Betty Dooley bequeath their merry twinkle to Joy Falls. He does have such a long face now, doesn't he?

Dolly Falls leaves S.H. Kress to Harry Swartzell. Maybe Dolly will help take inventory, Harry.

Mamie Draper wishes that Collen Hartberger might have her interest in hill-billy music.

Juanita Scott leaves her position of president of the 4-H Club to Bobby Crouch.

Joe Roudabush leaves his ability to miss the school bus every morning to Freddie Dooley.

Ester Giles leaves a box of Fifth Avenues to Jeannette Franklin to eat at the basketball games. Watch your diet, Jeannette!

Nolie Giles leaves her doll to next year's child care class in Home Economics. Don't drown it, girls!

Willie Carter leaves her comb to Ella Mae Aldrich. Remember don't use it in class; Willie never did.

Ellen Gross leaves her bashfulness to her sister. Hope she knows how to use it!

Bobby Stallard leaves his Plymouth in the junkyard. Now, who'd have that thing?

Sarah Carter leaves her dignity to Myrtle Roop.

Nancy Sanderson and Gladys McGuire leave their lovely friendship to the students and teachers of Montvale.

Woodrow Giles leaves his dates with Rebecca Brown to Don McAfee. You'd better keep them, Woodrow, you may need them.

Mary Miller and Bob Trout leave their worries over writing the Will to some other victims.

Witness our hands this 6th day of June 1950 at Montvale High School

Mickey Mouse Senior Class of Minnie Mouse Montvale High School

We Minnie Mouse and Mickey Mouse do hereby certify that the above instrument was signed in our presence at Montvale, Va., on the 6th day June 1950 the Senior Class of Montvale High School who declared the same to be their Last Will and Testament. We further certify that at their request, in their presence and in the presence of each other we subscribed our names thereto as witnesses.
